

VCX RESPONSE CARD – VERSION 2

Required VCX Vacuum Coolant Exchange Inspection Procedure

If you have any questions contact:
RTI Tech Support at 1-800-468-2321, press ext. 1.

*Insert "X" in the box after completion of each item, unless otherwise noted.
Drop the completed card in any US Postal Service mailbox.*

COMPLETE?

INSTRUCTIONS

- | | |
|--------------------------|--|
| <input type="checkbox"/> | 1) Stopped all VCX equipment usage immediately. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | 2) Read all material supplied in the notification package. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | 3) Completed VCX visual inspection as identified in material. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | 4) Replaced defective VCX Coolant Tube(s). |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | 5) Installed supplied VCX Coolant Tube Caution Label per enclosed instructions if tube(s) passed visual inspection. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | 6) Instructed all equipment users of required inspection procedures before operation. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | 7) Implemented weekly confirmation process with your service technicians verifying their compliance with visual coolant tube inspection prior to each machine use . |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | 8) Do you operate other RTI equipment in your shop ? Indicate with Y or N. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | 9) May we send you important and timely product information in the future ? Indicate with Y or N. |

Company Name: _____ Phone: _____

Address: _____

Equipment S/N(s): _____

Signature: _____ Print Name: _____

Please provide your email: _____ Date: _____

We consider your information confidential and it will not be disclosed to anyone.